Dash Hopes
For New SchoolP. W. A. Grants Are Withdrawn.

Plans for the new Arlington Heights grade school for which $68,000 in bonds was voted recently to take care of Arlington's supposed share in a P. W. A. project that would build the school with a considerable government grant have suddenly been dashed into cold water by an announcement that in the future P. W. A. will not be granting any 45% grants on public works, but in place of the old bountiful outright grants they will pay only for the labor of relief workers on the job. There will be no federal grants for materials and supplies.

This announcement that the days of Santa Claus have been ended by the federal government has thrown consternation into the ranks of the District 25 school board.

The entire cost of the proposed new school is estimated at $125,000. The board feels that with a P. W. A. grant so materially reduced, there is no way in which the school can be built.

The school board at a meeting Monday night, passed a resolution requesting P. W. A. to reconsider the Arlington Heights application.

The board has also called a meeting of all civic leaders including the officers of the Lions club, American Legion, P. T. A., Business Men's association, etc., for Thursday night to fully explain the revised P. W. A. ruling to the community leaders and to enlist their cooperation and support of the resolution requesting a reconsideration of the application by the Federal officials.

Some quick and decisive action seems necessary if that long needed new school is to ever be built. The resolution passed by the school board is as follows:

Whereas, School District No. 25, Arlington Heights, Cook County, Illinois is in very urgent need of a new school building to replace a building which has been in use since 1869 and which is in a deplorable condition, and

Whereas, our School District No. 25 and our town is increasing in population and our school is overcrowded to the extent that we are compelled to crowd more than forty pupils in each room where about thirty pupils should occupy these rooms, and

Whereas, plans for a new school building have been prepared and bonds to the amount of $68,000 were voted and approved by a large majority on March 13, 1937, and said bonds have been sold and the money is available, and application has been filed with the P. W. A. for a grant under Illinois Application No. 1847 in the amount of 45% of the total cost of a new building, and

Whereas, the total cost of a new school building will be approximately $125,000 it will be impossible for this School District and this town to complete the urgently needed school building without a P. W. A. grant in the amount of approximately 45% of the total cost, and

Whereas, School District No. 25, Arlington Heights, Illinois is unable to vote additional bonds, having reached its limits according to law, and

Whereas, this Board of Education, School District No. 25 Arlington Heights, Illinois is informed that under a revised ruling by the P. W. A. our School District is required to finance initially 100% of the cost of the new building, which is impossible,

Be It Therefore Resolved, that this Board of Education of School District No. 25 Arlington Heights, Cook County, Illinois, in session, does hereby protest the revised plan of the P. W. A. and very respectfully requests a reconsideration of the former plan to grant our School District 45% of the total cost of a new building as set up in Illinois Application No. 1847.

Unless this consideration is granted we will be forced to continue without a new school building for several years.

Approved by unanimous vote of the Board of Education, School District No. 25, Arlington Heights, Cook County, Illinois, May 10, 1937.

Empty Bank Building
Is A Bad Label
For Town

(An Editorial)

Arlington Heights people can rest a lot easier if the membership of the Cook County Farm Bureau at its meeting May 28 votes to purchase the closed Arlington Heights State Bank building.

The Arlington Heights State Bank was organized some 35 years ago. Until about 12 years ago it had as its home what is now the building occupied by the Sieburg Drug Store. At that time they built and moved into the new structure. At the height of the depression period—or should we say at the depth of the depression period—the bank, as did many, many others, passed into receivership. Since that time the bank building has remained idle. It has continued many times to enter into discussion of Arlington Heights people as to what would be the future occupancy of the building. The architecture of the building does not make it suitable for many uses, and it has often times been rumored that there were movements to establish it as a tavern, and it is with an extreme degree of interest and pleasure that the better interests of Arlington Heights look forward to the Farm Bureau ownership and for the Farm Bureau home rather than for other purposes that have been mentioned.

Many of the farmers about Arlington Heights were stock holders in the bank and many of these are Farm Bureau members. It is rather appropriate that the building should pass over to the farmer group. In this manner the farmer may retrieve, in part, as a Farm Bureau member, his loss as a bank stock holder.

Arlington Heights as a whole can thank Mr. Barrett, farm adviser, and Harvey Adair, president of the farm bureau for removing the bugaboo of a closed bank building in Arlington Heights. Slowly but surely the earmarks of the depression are being removed from this fair city.

Strikes Gold
Mine Under
Swamp

After ten years of poking around the swamps of Illinois and southern Wisconsin in search of a Marl bed L. C. Hickox of Deerfield was finally rewarded when he made the strike of what he was looking for on the old Crossman farm on the Elmhurst road near Arlington Heights.

The property was purchased some time ago by Smith and Dawson, subdividers.

Mr. Hickox purchased about 10 acres of swamp land from the real estate firm following his discovery. Marl is a very valuable fertilizer and is much sought for by vegetable and flower growers as a valuable plant food.

The Marl bed just discovered lies deep beneath a peat deposit.

Mr. Hickox has a drag line at work scraping off the peat, which is also a valuable top dressing for lawns and a good fertilizer in its own right.

The peat is 19 feet deep in places before the Marl is uncovered. Work on getting out the valuable fertilizer is handicapped at present by high water and all of the dredging now is done beneath the water.

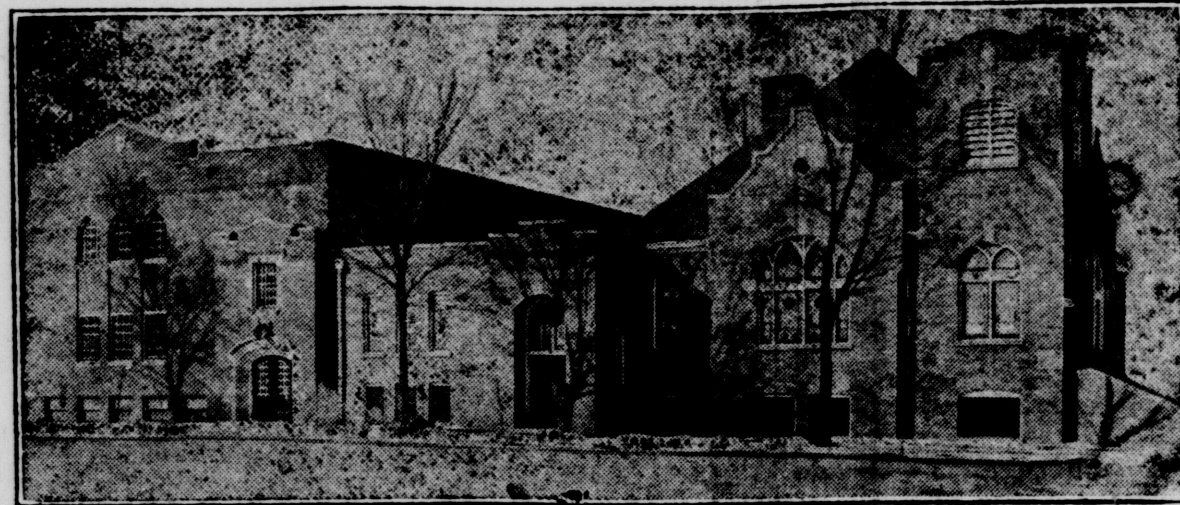

Mr. Hickox estimates from his soundings that there is about 8,000,000 yards of Marl in his bed. The price per yard is around $5 so some extent of the value of that gold mine beneath the swamp may be seen.

Tests are now being made of the new Marl and its fertilizer content. Some of the Marl has already been used by rose growers with exceptional results.

George Schneberger will be the local distributor of the new fertilizer when the owner of the "mine" starts larger commercial production.

In all of his investigations of swamp lands over a period of ten years Mr. Hickox has never before found exactly what he wanted until he made his discovery on the old Crossman farm.

LOYALTY CAMPAIGN TO SAVE THIS CHURCH PLANT

Lot Of Dough
For A Few
Fish

$394.94 is a lot of money. That amount of money would buy a lot of fish. In fact with all that dough anyone could have quite a vacation, even if they never saw a fish.

We are just wondering what sort of a fish story Alderman George Klehm is going to tell at the next board meeting (George has told some tall ones in the past) on his prowess as a fisherman and what sort of a yarn Frank Danielsen is going to concoct for the boys at the Palatine Lions club. These two fellows usually make a few trips each year up into Wisconsin and they bring back some tall tales about the fish they catch.

This year they went up as usual for an early tryout of their luck. That luck must have been all bad for before the boys could get back with either fish or stories. An Associate Press dispatch came crackling out of the northern wilderness from Watertown, Wis., with the information that Judge E. G. Buroff had assessed fines totaling $394.94 against George and Frank on charges that they fished illegally in Lake Hoshkonong.

We haven't heard any direct reports from the boys themselves, but there are stories going the rounds that George was fined for doing the fishing and Frank for transporting the catch.

Now, of course, we don't suppose the Judge would get the idea, but George and Frank probably knew of some little lake that needed stocking with some fish and thought that they'd help out the conservation department by transferring some fish from one lake to another.

Of course they didn't figure that a game warden would get suspicious of their intentions and lock a gate on them before they could move their fish from one lake to another.

And then the Judge probably didn't have any sense of humor either about a couple of Illinois fishermen trying to help out the Wisconsin conservation department, for according to press dispatches, he socked the boys for illegally catching fish and didn't give them any chance to carry them to any other lake to be planted.

Well, boys, we've done our best to soften the harshness of those news dispatches, so you see our intentions were good, the same as yours about stocking up that other lake.

Now any time you fellows have any good fish stories, let us know about them. We don't like the jar of those harsh news dispatches that flash out of the north and don't explain all of a fellows good intentions.

Loyalty
Dinner Helps
Save Church

An enthusiastic group of members and friends of the First Presbyterian church sat down to dinner last night to inaugurate a forward movement in the church. It was the occasion for launching as a part of the Loyalty program now being conducted a campaign for securing the sum of $12,500 to provide a Save-Our-Church and Debt Reduction fund.

The speaker of the evening was Mr. Ira D. Vayhinger, of Chicago, director of the Loyalty program, who spoke on "The Best in America." He told of the value of religion in America and gave credit to the church for the priceless heritage that has made this nation what it is. He related experiences of churches elsewhere that have in recent months made great strides in providing for the payment of capital expenditures on their buildings.

Mr. Vayhinger explained that in view of the generous settlement that has been offered to the church, the Trustees have undertaken a campaign to raise the sum of $6,000 in cash to meet the terms of the settlement with the creditors and $6,500 to take care of the maturing principal and interest during the next two years. The pledges will be asked for over a 30 month period.

When this amount of $12,500 is secured and paid, the church will then have reduced the present debt of over $42,000 to about $20,000.

It was explained that Sunday, May 23, would be the climax day of the campaign.

The dinner last night was sponsored by a committee of which Mr. F. E. Briggs was the chairman and was served by the ladies of the church. The Save-Our-Church Drive committee is under the direction of Mr. Jas. E. Groves and Mr. Henry Muller is chairman of the Board of Trustees and general chairman of the campaign.

God builds no churches! By his plan That labor has been left to man. No spires miraculously rise, No little mission from the sky, Falls on a bleak and barren place. To be a source of strength and grace.

The humblest church demands its price, In human toil and sacrifice.

The humblest spire in mortal ken Where God abides, was built by men, And if the church is still to grow, Is still the light of hope to throw Across the valley of despair, Men still must build, God's House of Prayer.

God sends no churches from the skies, Out of our hearts they must arise. —Edgar A. Guest.

Deny Charges
Of Wide
Open Town

Mr. Albert Goedke newly elected alderman and Mr. P. J. Mors who headed the Home Town ticket, have taken exceptions to some of the statements appearing in an article of last week's edition, headed, "Proposes Wide Open Town." We gladly accord them space for repudiation of statements made in the original article.

Mr. Goedke states that he is strongly in favor of enforcement of present ordinances regarding taverns and the revocation of same if violated. Mr. Mors states that his party made no promise of any kind and demands that the editor reveal the source of information upon which the article was written.

The incident occurred at a public meeting of the village board which unfortunately was not attended by the editor. He gathered the information published from an interview with three men who were present. If the interviews were erroneously reported, the editor herewith expresses his regrets and is glad to make correction by the publishing of the accompanying statements. However, the Herald does not knowingly publish libelous articles and it is against its policy to reveal the source of any news item published.

Evidently we are all of one accord in keeping Arlington Heights a clean town and there is no danger that the bars of law enforcement will be let down.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

An editorial and newspaper story appearing in the last week's issue of the Arlington Heights Herald credits certain statements relating to Tavern Licenses to and mentions the name of our newly elected village trustee, Albert W. Goedke, who submits the following statement for publication entitled,

THE TRUTH

President Flentje said that several new-comers had requested tavern licenses and asked the board how they felt about the matter. President Flentje expressed himself as being opposed to issuing more than a total of ten tavern licenses which is the limit set by ordinance.

So I, Goedke stated that Mr. Chidley and myself had discussed this matter prior to the village election and agreed that if elected we would try to remove the limit now in effect, reducing the amount of the license fee but insisting that all pay the same price.

Then President Flentje said, so you are for no limit in the number of taverns. I, Goedke replied by saying, that is not the way I feel about it, there should be a limit but from time to time same can be extended, but that care should be used in who is to get a license.

President Flentje said that intoxicated men could be seen upon the Sunday mornings. I, Goedke said, the old board issued the licenses why don't you revoke same if such is the condition. I, Goedke also said that maybe some of them bought a bottle of whiskey on Saturday night and drank it Sunday morning, what can we do about that? No answer.

President Flentje asked me, do you want the taverns open all day on Sundays? I, Goedke said, NO, CLOSE THEM UP TIGHT AND IF THEY DO NOT OBEY THE LAW REVOKE THEIR LICENSE, THAT IS MY STAND.

I, Goedke also said that Mr. Adam and myself had not discussed this matter before the election. I also said that no tavern keeper had asked me to open up on Sunday mornings. I, Goedke also said that if a vote was called on increasing the license fee that I would vote against the increase and ask for a reduction.

I, Goedke also said in effect that tavern keepers could not afford the high license fees and that same was liable to cause cheating in the quality of goods.

My purpose in issuing this statement is purely for comparison with what appeared in last week's issue so that my friends can see how the

Members To Vote May 28
On Plan

The bank building of the closed Arlington Heights State Bank may become the home of the Cook County Farm Bureau. Under date of May 11 notices over the signature of Alfred Busse, secretary of the farmer's organization went out to the members advising them of a call for special meeting for the 28th day of May for the purpose of considering and acting on the proposition of purchasing that structure.

The possibility of the purchase of the bank building was presented to the official board of the farm bureau by Adviser O. G. Barrett some time ago. Negotiations were entered into with the receiver and this week, word was received from the latter that if the farm bureau desires the property that organization can acquire it at an advantageous figure.

It isn't questioned seriously that the membership of the Farm Bureau at their called meeting will not approve the action of the Board in recommending the purchase of the building. It is very suitable to the Farm Bureau's needs. With the Farm Bureau expanding and growing in membership projects and services as it has too in the last ten years, it seems very worth while and feasible that the organization should own its own building with adequate space which in so many ways proves advantageous, both financially and otherwise in place of renting what often times is inadequate accommodation.

Life Saved
Gets Fined

Drayo Roniso, who occupied the section shanty on the railroad property toward the west part of the Village narrowly escaped death Monday evening when he set the shanty on fire by upsetting a kerosene stove on which he was attempting to do some cooking.

Roniso was intoxicated and had to be rescued from the burning building. Chief Skoog of the local police promptly placed him under arrest and Tuesday morning Judge Wm. Neuman fined him $25.00 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

What action the railroad will take against him for burning up their section shanty, remains to be seen but the Village at least has the 25 bucks on the charge of drunkenness, anyhow.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Referring to editorial appearing in the Arlington Heights Herald of May 7, 1937, insinuating that the candidates on the "Home Town Ticket" were for an "Open Town," without limit as to number of saloons and as to closing hours.

The candidates on the "Home Town Ticket" made a clean campaign and made no pre-election promises of any kind. The election is over, and it is only an ingrate that would maliciously make such a statement as referred to in the foregoing, and the candidates on the "Home Town Ticket" demand that the editor not only give his information to them, but publish his name in the Herald, so the public will know.

The platform of the "Home Town Ticket" as stated at the public meeting held in the high school on Thursday evening, April 15, 1937, and as can be confirmed from the stenographic record, if the stenographer hired by the Flentje party took the remarks made by the candidate for President on the "Home Town Ticket," was as follows:

First: Serve the best interests of the people in general, in all localities.

Second: Spend public funds for public benefits.

Third: Preferential treatment to none, but a square deal for all.

God builds no churches! By his plan That labor has been left to man. No spires miraculously rise, No little mission from the sky, Falls on a bleak and barren place. To be a source of strength and grace. The humblest church demands its price, In human toil and sacrifice.

The humblest spire in mortal ken Where God abides, was built by men.

And if the church is still to grow, Is still the light of hope to throw Across the valley of despair, Men still must build, God's House of Prayer.

God sends no churches from the skies, Out of our hearts they must arise. —Edgar A. Guest.

Deny Charges Of Wide Open Town

Mr. Albert Goedke newly elected alderman and Mr. F. J. Mors who headed the Home Town ticket, have taken exceptions to some of the statements appearing in an article of last week's edition, headed, "Proposes Wide Open Town." We gladly accord them space for repudiation of statements made in the original article.

Mr. Goedke states that he is strongly in favor of enforcement of present ordinances regarding taverns and the revocation of same if violated. Mr. Mors states that his party made no promise of any kind and demands that the editor reveal the source of information upon which the article was written.

The incident occurred at a public meeting of the village board which unfortunately was not attended by the editor. He gathered the information published from an interview with three men who were present. If the interviews were erroneous, as reported, the editor herewith expresses his regrets and is glad to make correction by the publishing of the accompanying statements. However, the Herald does not knowingly publish libelous articles and it is against its policy to reveal the source of any news item published.

Evidently we are all of one accord in keeping Arlington Heights a clean town and there is no danger that the bars of law enforcement will be let down.

S. R. Paddock.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

An editorial and newspaper story appearing in the last week's issue of the Arlington Heights Herald credits certain statements relating to Tavern Licenses and mentions the name of our newly elected village trustee, Albert W. Goedke, who submits the following statement for publication entitled, "THE TRUTH"

President Flentie said that several new-comers had requested tavern licenses and asked the board how they felt about the matter. President Flentie expressed himself as being opposed to issuing more than a total of ten tavern licenses which is the limit set by ordinance.

So I, Goedke stated that Mr. Chidley and myself had discussed this matter prior to the village election and agreed that if elected we would try to remove the limit now in effect, reducing the amount of the license fee but insisting that all pay the same price.

Then President Flentie said, so you are for no limit in the number of taverns. I, Goedke replied by saying, that is not the way I feel about it, there should be a limit from time to time same can be extended, but that care should be used in who is to get a license.

President Flentie said that intoxicated men could be seen upon the streets on Sunday mornings. I, Goedke said, the old board issued the licenses why don't you revoke same if such is the condition. I, Goedke also said that maybe some of them bought a bottle of whiskey on Saturday night and drank it Sunday morning, what can we do about that? No answer.

President Flentie asked me, do you want the taverns open all day on Sundays? I, Goedke said, NO, CLOSE THEM UP TIGHT AND IF THEY DO NOT OBEY THE LAW REVOKE THEIR LICENSE, THAT IS MY STAND.

I, Goedke also said that Mr. Adam and myself had not discussed this matter before the election. I also said that no tavern keeper had asked me to open up on Sunday mornings. I, Goedke also said that if a vote was called on increasing the license fee that I would vote against the increase and ask for a reduction.

I, Goedke also said in effect that tavern keepers could not afford the high license fees and that same was liable to cause cheating in the quality of goods.

My purpose in issuing this statement is purely for comparison with what appeared in last week's issue so that my friends can see how the

Members To Vote May 28 On Plan

The bank building of the closed Arlington Heights State Bank may become the home of the Cook County Farm Bureau. Under date of May 11 notices over the signature of Alfred Busse, secretary of the farmer's organization went out to the members advising them of a call for special meeting for the 28th day of May for the purpose of considering and acting on the proposition of purchasing that structure.

The possibility of the purchase of the bank building was presented to the official board of the farm bureau by Adviser O. G. Barrett some time ago. Negotiations were entered into with the receiver and this week, word was received from the latter that if the farm bureau desires the property that organization can acquire it at an advantageous figure.

It isn't questioned seriously that the membership of the Farm Bureau at their called meeting will not approve the action of the Board in recommending the purchase of the building. It is very suitable to the Farm Bureau's needs. With the Farm Bureau expanding and growing in membership projects and services as it has too in the last ten years, it seems very worth while and feasible that the organization should own its own building with adequate space which in so many ways proves advantageous, both financially and otherwise. In place of renting what often times is inadequate accommodation.

Life Saved Gets Fined

Drayco Roniso, who occupied the section shanty on the railroad property toward the west part of the Village narrowly escaped death Monday evening when he set the shanty on fire by upsetting a kerosene stove on which he was attempting to do some cooking.

Roniso was intoxicated and had to be rescued from the burning building. Chief Skoog of the local police promptly placed him under arrest and Tuesday morning Judge Win. Neuman fined him $25.00 and costs for being drunk and disorderly.

What action the railroad will take against him for burning up their section shanty, remains to be seen but the Village at least has the 25 bucks on the charge of drunkenness, anyhow.

Rev. Taegle To Preach Sunday At St. Peter's

Rev. Oswald Taegle will occupy the pulpit of St. Peter's church on Sunday in place of Rev. C. M. Noack, who will be at Cicero where he will baptize his grandchild at the services of the Lutheran church there.

truth can be twisted to fool the public. People who know me know that I am law abiding and believe in strict enforcement of the law.

The election as far as I am concerned is over. I do not propose to play politics with the mandate the people gave me in the village election.

I am for REAL PUBLIC SERVICE.

Signed,
Albert W. Goedke.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Referring to editorial appearing in the Arlington Heights Herald of May 7, 1937, insinuating that the candidates on the "Home Town Ticket" were for an "Open Town," without limit as to number of saloons and as to closing hours. The candidates on the "Home Town Ticket" made a clean campaign and made no pre-election promises of any kind. The election is over, and it is only an ingrate that would maliciously make such a statement as referred to in the foregoing, and the candidates on the "Home Town Ticket" demand that the editor not only give his information to them, but publish his name in the Herald, so the public will know.

The platform of the "Home Town Ticket" as stated at the public meeting held in the high school on Thursday evening, April 15, 1937, and as can be confirmed from the stenographic record, if the stenographer hired by the Flentie party took the remarks made by the candidate for President on the "Home Town Ticket," was as follows:

First: Serve the best interests of the people in general, in all localities.

Second: Spend public funds for public benefits.

Third: Preferential treatment to none, but a square deal for all.

From the Candidates on the Home Town Ticket.

Walther League Choral Union Concert Sunday, May 16

The choirs of a number of Lutheran churches are again giving a concert. Last year this was one of the outstanding musical events of the neighborhood. An audience of 1600 jammed the gymnasium of Maine Township High School. A great crowd is expected this year.

The chorus of 125 voices is under the direction of Mr. A. Sachtleben of Norwood Park. Mr. Elmer Jackisch of Mt. Prospect is the accompanist. The program will consist of numbers by Bach, Bortniansky, Handel, and other masters. A children's chorus of 150 voices will be heard in several three and four part numbers. This chorus is drawn from the Lutheran Schools in this area.

It is under the direction of Mr. Theo. Preuss of Arlington Heights. In addition to this there will be several soloists on the program. Miss Rose Sachtleben, International Talent Quest Winner, 1936, will play a piano selection; Miss Leonara Steiner, District Talent Quest winner, will sing a soprano solo; and Miss Emma Milas will perform on the violin.

The admission price is only 25 cents and the proceeds of this concert have been set aside for the United Youth Endeavor. In a few words this is a movement to hold the youth with the church. Church members may be divided into three classes: the active, the inactive, and those who have drifted. The United Youth Endeavor reaches out for those of the second and third divisions.

Plan to attend this musical treat and help along in a worthy cause.

Arlington Cardinals Lose to Ela 8-1

The Arlington high school baseball team played a ball game entirely in keeping with their tattered uniforms Friday, losing to Ela 8 to 1 in seven innings. A fine pitching performance by Mel Kehe was turned into a farce by some of the sloppiest fielding seen in many years. All Kehe did was to strike out ten men in six innings, get two assists, and drive in Arlington's lone run. One of the other boys kept the bats laid neatly in order.

The trouble began in the first inning when Boegen hit a slithering grounder along Ela's new leveled infield and Buesing failed to come up with it. Cadamero promptly bounced a beauty off the handle of his bat which dropped in the long grass back of second for a hit. He then stole second. Schroeder drove a long fly to Hedke in left center, who stepped in a hole, lost the ball in the sun, and then dropped the ball. Leuthesser, easily the best hitter in the conference, struck out and so did Sibly. The third inning saw Wildhagen break his bat with a handle-hit. Blau feebly poked the ball down to third and arrive safely when no play was made anywhere. L. Gleason struck out but H. Gleason was safe when Wulbecker failed to make a play on a slow-hit ball and Pingel had to field it from short. Cadamero chalked up his bat and poked the ball out of the infield with the end of it. Cadamero fled out and Leuthesser struck out.

The only Arlington scoring came when Kirchhoff bunted and was safe on an error. Buesing's tap to the pitcher moved him to second. With the pitcher at bat, Schroeder of Ela grooved one and Kehe drove it into center field for Arlington's sole hit of the day. He expired on second. The rest of the game was meaningless repetition.

Arlington had good catching for the first time this year. The outfielders can not be judged by their play in the hayfield in which they performed. Mecklenburg's catch of Leyden Wins Over Arlington H. S.

The Leyden high school won from Arlington Monday by a score of 9 to 3. This was the third conference loss for Arlington's, and Leyden's second win. Buesing pitched another excellent game, striking out eleven in six innings, but, like Kehe in the previous game, he had poor support. Two fly balls dropped in Leyden's sunny outfield cost four runs. Leyden had only two earned runs, one of them scored by a man who was sent to first base after flagging a pitch with his hand. Two of Arlington's runs were earned. Five Cardinals went down on called third strikes in the first four innings. On two of those the catcher leaped to one side and knocked the ball down to save a passed ball or wild pitch.

Robertson pitched for Leyden, getting ten strike-outs, four of which came in the last two innings. Stanakis, with a double and a single was the best hitter. Long's tremendous wallop to left center in the third looked good for a round trip, but Mecklenburg pulled it down on the best play of the game.

(Reserve Game)
Arlington played a team consisting chiefly of freshmen and sophomores against Waukegan's reserves Saturday, losing 9-3. Bruhnke, frosh pitcher was shaky, allowing three runs in the first, but settled down to pitch good ball. In the second, third, and fourth innings only one man hit a ball to the outfield. His support was spotty, with some fine play at times. Buesing and Pingel finished the game. Welflin, regular catcher, hit two doubles, Weisgerber got one. Arlington made two double plays and two errors.

Walther League Choral Union Concert Sunday, May 16

The choirs of a number of Lutheran churches are again giving a concert. Last year this was one of the outstanding musical events of the neighborhood. An audience of 1600 jammed the gymnasium of Maine Township High School. A great crowd is expected this year. The chorus of 125 voices is under the direction of Mr. A. Sachtleben of Norwood Park. Mr. Elmer Jackisch of Mt. Prospect is the accompanist. The program will consist of numbers by Bach, Bortniansky, Handel, and other masters.

A children's chorus of 150 voices will be heard in several three and four part numbers. This chorus is drawn from the Lutheran Schools in this area.

It is under the direction of Mr. Theo. Preuss of Arlington Heights.

In addition to this there will be several soloists on the program.

Talent Quest Winner, 1936, will play a piano selection: Miss Leona Steiner, District Talent Quest winner, will sing a soprano solo; and Miss Emma Milas will perform on the violin.

The admission price is only 25 cents and the proceeds of this concert have been set aside for the United Youth Endeavor. In a few words this is a movement to help the youth with the church. Church members may be divided into three classes: the active, the inactive, and those who have drifted.

The United Youth Endeavor reaches out for those of the second and third divisions.

Plan to attend this musical treat and help along in a worthy cause.

Arlington Cardinals Lose to Ela 8-1

The Arlington high school baseball team played a ball game entirely in keeping with their tattered uniforms Friday, losing to Ela 8 to 1 in seven innings. A fine pitching performance by Mel Kehe was turned into a farce by some of the sloppiest fielding seen in many years. Al Kehe did was to strike out ten men in six innings, get two assists, and drive in Arlington's lone run. One of the other boys kept the bats laid neatly in order. The trouble began in the first inning when Boegen hit a slithering grounder along Ela's newly graveled infield and Buesing failed to come up with it. Cadamero promptly bounced a beauty off the handle of his bat which dropped in the long grass back of second for a hit. He then stole second. Schroeder drove a long fly to Hedke in left center, who stepped in a hole, lost the ball in the sun, and then dropped the ball. Leuthesser, easily the best hitter in the conference, struck out and so did Sibby. The third inning saw Wildhagen break his bat with a handle-hit. Blau feebly poked the ball down to third and arrived safely when no man was made anywhere. L. Gleason struck out but H. Gleason was safe when Wulbecker failed to make a play on a slow-hit ball and Pingel had to field it from short. Cadamero chalked up his bat and poked the ball out of the infield with the end of it. Cadamero fled out and Leuthesser struck out.

Leyden Wins Over Arlington H. S.

The Leyden high school won from Arlington Monday by a score of 9 to 3. This was the third conference loss for Arlington's, and Leyden's second win. Buesing pitched another excellent game, striking out eleven in six innings, but, like Kehe in the previous game, he had poor support. Two fly balls dropped in Leyden's sunny outfield costed Leyden two runs. Leyden had only two earned runs, one of them scored by a man who was sent to first base after flagging a pitch with his hand. Two of Arlington's runs were earned. Five Cardinals were on called third strikes in the first four innings. On two of those the catcher leaped to one side and knocked the ball down to save a passed ball or wild pitch. Robertson pitched for Leyden, getting ten strike-outs, four of which came in the last two innings. Stanakis, with a double and a single was the best hitter. Long's tremendous wallop to left center in the third looked good for a round trip, but Mecklenburg pulled it down on the best play of the game. Arl., Buesing, Welfin 000 100—2 Ley., Richardson, Nelson 202 212—5 (Reserve Game)

Wildhagen's long liner in the sixth was sparkling. Buesing played his first game at first base in good style, and Kirchhoff looked at home on second. For Ela Leuthesser had a bad day at bat, but was still the best catcher ever to work in the N. W. conference. Schroeder struck out nine in seven innings, walked none, and hit a batsman. There is no telling what kind of a pitcher he would be without the tombstones and pine trees for a background, but probably he'd be as good as any in the league. Schroeder and Kehe might put on a hurling duel worth watching if the game were played on anything remotely resembling a baseball field.

Red Wings Lose Opener

Beaten 16 to 10 Hitting Game

The Arlington boys in the 4th inning and Sunday afternoon. Chicago in a scoring game crowd of baseball park diamond to season's opener.

The cold weather didn't help the boys any, as the cool wind made the day better for football than for a baseball opener. The final score was 16 to 13, in favor of the Chicago team.

A seven run spurge by the Chicago boys in the 4th inning and another knock of half a dozen counters in the ninth, put the game on ice for the visitors.

The Red wings started out with three runs in the first and another in the second, to get a good lead. Then they slowed up and the other fellows went at it. Again late in the game the home boys broke loose with 3 runs in the eighth and 4 in the ninth and if they could only have kept that half dozen last inning runs out of the book, the boys would have grabbed off a victory.

The Red wings made 15 hits and the Chicago boys annexed 16 safe whacks. For the Red wings, E. Brodman grabbed 5 hits out of five times up, while K. Wierert annexed four safe ones out of six times at the plate.

In the festivities which preceded the game, George Palmer introduced Geo. Voiz of the Park board, who made a few appropriate remarks. Leonard Rodeward, the popular newsdealer and baseball fan, was the winner of a substantial prize.

The Red Wings will clash with Barrington Sunday on the park diamond. These two teams are among the strongest suburban teams in this part of the county and a hot game is assured, as there is always plenty of local rivalry between these home town teams.

The attendance at the opening game was very gratifying to the boys, as a dandy crowd turned out. One fan said he didn't know whether the fans knew what the park board built the grandstand for or not as no one used it.

But it was a cold day and we'll venture that the crowds during the summer will find out what the stand is for when the sun gets good and hot out on the field.

Youth Convention And Parade Sunday

During the year the 28 Posts and 23 Auxiliary Unit of the Arlington District, Department of Illinois of the American Legion have been carrying out their share of the National Americanism program of the organization. This is accomplished in part by the sponsoring and furnishing of leadership to the many youth organizations within the confines of the district. The hope being of building good character and citizenship for this great country of ours.

The youth in which we are so much interested are those in school classes, in field houses, in summer camps, all in the process of development of a true understanding of loyalty, patriotism, and idealism, so necessary in these times of rapid changes of social order. The future of our democracy will within a short space of time be intrusted to their keeping. With a full understanding these, our boys and girls will be equipped to assume the responsibility of preserving Justice, freedom and democracy throughout all the communities and States of this Nation.

It will be your opportunity to review these organizations and the good work being accomplished by the Ninth District, next Sunday afternoon, May 16, at 2 o'clock on Humboldt boulevard between Palmer Square and Humboldt Park. It is expected that the total number of various groups will approximate 60. Included will be various musical and marching units.

The officers and members of the district were very proud last year as the youth of our section, which is the northwestern portion of Cook county, passed in review, at Portage Park. Commander George A. Rohde, and Junior Vice Commander Lloyd E. Cunningham, chairman of the convention committee of the ninth District extend a cordial invitation to you to attend this convention. Many distinguished guests will attend and will address from a reviewing stand which will be created just south of the Szeszko monument. The awards will be made from the reviewing stand as soon after the termination of the parade as the Rules committee headed by Comrade Frank McRorie can compile the standing of points turned in by the judges. The awards will be beautiful silver cups.

Palatine To Participate
Palatine Post No. 690, is going with the 9th district in this parade. All groups are to meet in front of U. O. F. hall at 12:30 Sunday, where adequate transportation will be available.

U. S. Gob From Heights Writes From Chungking, China, Gets The Herald

They even get the Herald at Chungking, China, April 2, 1937.

DEAR SIR: Just a few lines to let you know that I am still receiving your paper and have been doing so for the last two years. The paper is only seven or eight weeks old when I received it out just the same it's news from the old home town that I'm interested in. I'm over 11,000 miles from my old home town and 1,500 miles up the Yangtze river from Shanghai. During high water it takes mail about 12 to 15 days to get here from Shanghai, but now during low water it takes all the way from four weeks to two months as the mail has to come up by junks and for most of the last four hundred miles up here they have to be tracked across the rapids. Today the river marking up here at Chungking is at 2.4 feet. This is the lowest the river has been during the eighty years that they have been keeping record of the river here and from all indications we will have a lower mark before summer arrives as they have had very little snow up in Tibet.

The worst part of this low water as far as we are concerned is that we can't get any American food up here until high water, although the Chinese raise practically every crop that they raise in the states. This is the best duty in the U. S. although it is the navy's furthest outpost and one of the most no good parts of China.

I wish to compliment you on the writeups you have had on the football and basketball games. They sure have been good. Well, will close for time being.

Yours truly,
K. H. JOHNSON,
U. S. Navy.

Whitmore Resigns

Popular Superintendent Of Arlington Elementary Schools To Leave

The board of education of school district 25, Arlington Heights, received the resignation Monday evening of E. D. Whitmore, who has been principal of the Arlington Heights elementary schools the past 13 years. Mr. Whitmore gave as his reason the acceptance of a position with an educational publication and school supply house. The resignation takes effect July 1. The board could do nothing other than to accept the resignation.

Mr. Whitmore has given many years of loyal service to the local schools. Some of the children who entered the primary when he first came to Arlington Heights, are now in college; others are in business. During this time the south side school building was erected and there have been other changes.

It has been the hope of Mr. Whitmore of recent years to stay in Arlington Heights until after the erection of a new building, but the business opportunity that came to him, could not be passed by.

Although in recent years, his family resided in the family home at Glen Ellyn, Mr. Whitmore has kept in close touch with Arlington Heights people and local civic affairs. He has always been ready to do his part. The business of the school has been conducted along modern lines, both as an educational plant and as a business institution. For eight years he served as the secretary of the board of education.

When there was no money to pay the teachers of school district 25, upon Mr. Whitmore fell the task of not only attempting to run his car and feed his family on tax warrants, but to find ways and means to aid many of the teachers who went without cash pay days many times.

"Those days are all past history," stated Mr. Whitmore Tuesday, "but such experiences serve to form a rather strong tie that is hard to break. I have enjoyed my work in Arlington Heights and its people and appreciate the courtesies that have been shown me by the public and especially by the members of the school boards of the past and present."

Softball League Near Death's Door

Softball for Arlington Heights, which seemed assured of a successful season this year, has hit a snag. Two weeks ago plans were under way for a six-team league. Now only three teams are available, with a fourth which will be put together if the league can be filled. All efforts to secure two more teams have failed, largely because no one wishes to take the responsibilities of managanship. No further attempts will be made by the present officials of the league to organize for this summer unless interested groups of players should of their own accord, secure the necessary number of teams.

U. S. Gob From Heights writes From Chungking China, Gets The Herald

They even get the Herald at Chungking, China, have a surprise, so writes K. H. Johnson aboard the U. S. S. Rains stationed at Chungking, 1,000 miles up the Yangtze river from Shanghai, just 11,000 miles from Arlington Heights.

Kari is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Johnson, 130 N. Mitchei, and a former graduate and star athlete at the Arlington Heights high school. He joined the navy three years ago and has been stationed in China the past two years. His friends, of course, will want to read an interesting letter received by the Herald this week:

Chungking, China,
April 2, 1937.

DEAR SIR:

Just a few lines to let you know that I am still receiving your paper and have been doing so for the last two years. The paper is only seven or eight weeks old when I receive it out just the same it's news from the old home town that I'm interested in. I'm over 11,000 miles from my old home town and 1,500 miles up the Yangtze river from Shanghai. During high water it takes mail about 12 to 15 days to get here from Shanghai, but now during low water it takes all the way from four weeks to two months as the mail has to come up by junk and for most of the last four hundred miles up here they have to be tracked across the rapids. Today the river marking up here at Chungking is at 2.4 feet. This is the lowest the river has been during the eighty years that they have been keeping record of the river here and from all indications we will have a lower mark before summer arrives as they have had very little snow up in Tibet.

The worst part of this low water as far as we are concerned is that we can't get any American food up here until high water, although the Chinese raise practically every crop that they raise in the states. This is the best duty in the U. S. any although it is the navy's furthest outpost and one of the most no good parts of China.

I wish to compliment you on the writeups you have had on the football and basketball games. They sure have been good. Well, will close for time being.

Yours truly,
K. H. JOHNSON,
U. S. Navy.

Whitmore Resigns

Popular Superintendent Of Arlington Elementary Schools To Leave

The board of education of school district 25, Arlington Heights, received the resignation Monday evening of E. D. Whitmore, who has been principal of the Arlington Heights elementary schools the past 13 years. Mr. Whitmore gave as his reason the acceptance of a position with an educational publication and school supply house. The resignation takes effect July 1. The board could do nothing other than to accept the resignation.

Mr. Whitmore has given many years of loyal service to the local schools. Some of the children who entered the primary when he first came to Arlington Heights, are now in college; others are in business. During this time the south side school building was erected and there have been other changes.

It has been the hope of Mr. Whitmore of recent years to stay in Arlington Heights until after the erection of a new building, but the business opportunity that came to him, could not be passed by.

Although in recent years, his family resided in the family home at Glen Ellyn, Mr. Whitmore has kept in close touch with Arlington Heights people and local civic affairs. He has always been ready to do his part. The business of the school has been conducted along modern lines, both as an educational plant and as a business institution. For eight years he served as the secretary of the board of education.

When there was no money to pay the teachers of school district 25, upon Mr. Whitmore fell the task of not only attempting to run his car and feed his family on tax warrants, but to find ways and means to aid many of the teachers who went without cash pay days many times.

"Those days are all past history," stated Mr. Whitmore Tuesday, "but such experiences serve to form a rather strong tie that is hard to break. I have enjoyed my work in Arlington Heights and its people and appreciate the courtesies that have been shown me by the public and especially by the members of the school boards of the past and present."

Softball League Near Death's Door

Softball for Arlington Heights, which seemed assured of a successful season this year, has hit a snag. Two weeks ago plans were under way for a six-team league. Now only three teams are available, with a fourth which will be put together if the league can be filled. All efforts to secure two more teams have failed, largely because no one wishes to take the responsibilities of managership. No further attempts will be made by the present officials of the league to organize for this summer unless interested groups of players should of their own accord, secure the necessary number of teams.

QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING

"Why do Banks make charges on some checking accounts?"

Banks make service charges on checking accounts when the balances are not sufficient to enable them "to pay their own way." This is done to prevent such accounts being handled at an operating loss. Banks seek to earn their operating expenses by loaning and investing the funds entrusted with them. When a service charge is made it is usually dependent on the balance and relative activity of the account.

In other words if an adequate balance is kept in proportion to the number of checks written or deposits made its earnings may cover the cost of servicing the account. The money which your account earns for the bank is applied on the cost of check books, signature cards, deposit slips, other supplies and necessary time and expense of handling your account. If your balance does not earn enough to pay the actual cost of handling, a moderate service charge may be required.

Substantial Growth At Prospect Hts.

Smith & Dawson are promoting one of their most successful subdivisions in what is known as Prospect Heights on the Elmhurst road north of Mt. Prospect.

Many really fine homes are being erected in Prospect Heights and more are being planned.

The area is restricted to residences of not less than $3,500, but most of the homes thus far built will run considerably in excess of that figure. The lots are of spacious size 100 by 600 or 100 by 1200 feet.

The property is being sold to substantial people, chiefly business and professional men, who are looking for a home in the country with plenty of room and fresh air.

This firm has promoted several subdivisions of a substantial nature in this territory, but in Prospect Heights, they seem to have reached their finest promotion. Mr. Smith of the Smith & Dawson firm, is a resident of Arlington Heights and Arlington Heights business men have supplied much of the material used on the new homes and local labor has been largely employed in the work.

Scout Band Men Have Opportunity In Large Band

Boy Scouts who are band musicians and who have had experience playing in school or other bands will have the opportunity at the National Jamboree of joining one of the largest Boy Scout bands ever to be assembled in the history of the Boy Scouts of America.

Region Seven (Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin) instead of having a Boy Scout Band representing one local Council are assembling Boy Scout musicians from every Council in the Region and will have a band of at least 160 pieces.

This band will be directed by C. W. Patrick of Springfield, Illinois, one of the outstanding band leaders in the United States. During the past five years in connection with the national convention of band directors, he has organized the National Clinic Band of high school boys where a large number of high school musicians have been assembled and in a few days of rehearsing been made into a finished band.

It will be a great privilege for Boy Scout musicians to be a part of this great music organization at the National Jamboree for they will have special opportunities for playing. They will also play along with the three great service bands and the directors of these three bands will serve as guest conductors on special occasions in this Boy Scout Band.

W. A. Miles, Jr., Asst. Scoutmaster of Troop 7 of Arlington Heights has registered as a member of this band and it is expected that a number of other Boy Scout musicians of the Northwest Suburban Council will be a part of this band. The band will be a separate unit from the Council Jamboree delegation and will have four days of training in Washington prior to the opening of the Jamboree.

Scoutmasters, Asst. Scoutmasters and Senior Patrol Leaders are needed for the Region 7 band in addition to the musicians. The band Troop leaders need not necessarily be musicians. Anyone desiring further information regarding the participation in this band should inquire from Scout Headquarters.

First class scout, Albert Berlin of Troop 14 of Des Plaines, has registered for the jamboree.

Scout To Camp Friday and Saturday

Several hundred Scouts and Scouters from the 30 Boy Scout Troops of the Northwest Suburban Council will camp together on next Friday and Saturday, May 14 and 15, at the Third Annual Camporee to be held in the Elk Grove Forest Preserve just south of Arlington Heights.

The general public and friends of scouting are invited to inspect this camp at any time during the Camporee, but they are particularly invited to attend the activities program and the campfire on Saturday afternoon and evening respectively. There will also be a campfire program on Friday evening.

Under the direction of Camporee Director, Robert Leslie of Park Ridge and his staff of leaders, preparations are being made for the finest program that this annual event has ever presented.

News from Springfield

By Bernice T. Van der Vries Representative, General Assembly 7th Senatorial District

Prospective brides and grooms, taxpayers, farmers and schools all came in for their share of legislation in a busy session of the General Assembly this week although in reality few bills were passed and greater activity took place in committee hearings than on the floors of either House.

The Senate restored to its calendar all House bills which had been sent to the executive committee and passed a number of those that were on third reading when the Senate decided to chastise the House.

When House Bill No. 114 introduced by Representative Sattler was called on Wednesday at first it seemed to receive the silent treatment. This measure provides that couples making application for marriage licenses must file with the county clerk, physicians' certificates setting forth that the applicants have been examined within the last fifteen days and have been found free from venereal disease.

The pleas from members of the Assembly who have been members of the committees to visit the charitable and penal institutions of the State which are crowded with the victims of social diseases were effective in securing the required number of votes. The opposition to the bill came from county clerks who feared a loss of marriage licenses and a corresponding loss of revenue. Since the bill was passed there objections have been raised to several administrative features. These will no doubt be corrected when the bill has a hearing in the Senate.

A bill of major importance to the taxpayers of Cook County was the Dailey - Schnackenberg McCabe Bill which passed the House on Wednesday. In this Bill which sets up a method for the pre-adjudication of the tax levies of municipal corporations, every taxpayer will be benefited instead of only those who paid their taxes under protest and could afford to go into court and carry through their objections. The Bill, a non partisan measure, as evidenced by the sponsors, had been carefully studied by the proponents and was drafted with the able assistance of two well known tax attorneys, William F. Struckmann and Robert S. Cushman, to whom Mr. Schnackenberg gave credit in his speech for the Bill.

A session of the Insurance Committee on Tuesday in which amendments lowering the interest rates on loans to holders of life insurance policies were defeated was more peacefully terminated than in the session the previous week which broke up in a riot. Efforts will be made next week to have the code reported out of the committee with recommendations for passage. Undoubtedly amendments will be submitted when the Bill reaches second reading in the House.

Proponents of the Women's Eight Hour Day were heard in the Committee on Industrial Affairs on Tuesday. Opponents will present their views this coming week. The bill as passed by the Senate makes provision for seasonal employment in the canning industry but fails to take into account seasonal or emergency work in factories or offices either by an adjustment of working hours or for overtime wages.

House Bill 75 (Van der Vries) was passed by the Senate last week but was amended to exempt Cicero from the bill which applies to elections of trustees in Winnetka. The House concurred in the Senate amendments on Monday night and the Bill now goes to the governor for his signature.

Spring Frolic And Ball May 22

Longer sessions of the House will be inaugurated next week under a program calling for sessions from Monday nights through Thursdays. This will permit committee hearings on Tuesdays and Wednesdays.

Scout Leaders Training Course

About sixty Scout Leaders from the four Councils, 21 of whom were from the Northwest Suburban Council, participated in the Scout leaders training course held at Camp Evanbosco last week-end, enjoying the fine spring weather and the splendid program presented by Scouters and educators of the four Councils.

Those making presentations on the program from the Northwest Suburban Council were: E. M. North and E. J. Anderson of the Maine Township High School and Scout Executive, Donald E. Kyger.

The following attended and completed a course: Clifford Taylor, Jess Yates, Lee R. Foster, C. A. Payne of Des Plaines, Russell Smith of Mt. Prospect, Earle R. Henderson and Don Henderson of Niles Center, W. A. Miles and W. A. Miles, Jr., of Arlington Heights, A. R. Crawford of Niles, Robert Jensen of Palatine, Dr. Earle Frisbie and Carl Neal of Park Ridge.

The Bensenville-Edgewood baseball team lost its second league game last Sunday in as many starts, this time to the Melrose Park Condors, 1936 Tri-County runners-up, by an 11-5 score on the latter's diamond. Tommy Kouzmanoff started on the mound for the B. E.'s but gave way to Anderson, giving up two runs in the second inning and two more in the third.

Anderson proved to be a poor rescuer, however, six Condor runners crossing the home plate in the fourth frame before "Cotton" Bailey was rushed in to stem the tide.

Paetz, the first man to face "Cotton" was the only batter to collect a safety off his offerings in four and one third innings, seven hitters tasting the strike-out ball.

B. E.'s Outright Opponents

The B. E.'s' outright Condors, pounding out a total of twelve hits to the latter's nine, but failure to connect when the bags were occupied resulted in ten being left on base, whereas the Condors drove in all but five. Superb work in the field by the Melrose infield made short work of at least four would-be B. E. hits.

Babe Anderson, H. Blume, Fred Reher and "Shorty" Knox, with two hits each, led the local hitters.

Verny Janzon, playing his first game of the season, turned in a nice game, coming up with several fielding gems and tossing in a timely hit on the offense.

Business Organization Is Active

The newly organized Arlington Heights Business Men's association, at a meeting Thursday night, approved a set of by-laws for the governing of the organization.

Committees were appointed on dues and membership and these committees plan an aggressive campaign to enlist all of the business men of Arlington Heights in the new organization. The new association will hold meetings on the last Thursday in each month. There are many important things to be discussed at the next meeting.

Four directors will be elected and these four, with the officers of the association, will form the governing body of the organization.

The question of closing all business houses on Thursday afternoon will also come up at the next meeting, as will the proposition of holding a centennial celebration in Arlington Heights. President C. L. Griffith has appointed a centennial committee which is investigating the centennial idea and will report at the next meeting.

There is a great deal of worthwhile work that an organization of this kind can do for Arlington Heights and the new organization's officers are enthusiastic about the prospects of the association and what it can do for the business interests and citizens of Arlington Heights.

Arlington Seniors Stand High In Test

The pupils of the graduating class of the Arlington Heights high school all recently took the general achievement and aptitude test for high school seniors in the fields of social science, english and mathematics, prepared by the committee on testing of Knox college.

The average standing of high school seniors throughout the state is 46.21 on this test.

The standing of the Arlington seniors was 56.43 or an average of 14.7% higher than the general state average. It was notable that many youngsters who do not receive high grades normally in their school work, made very good showings in these tests.

This shows what the pupils can do when they really apply themselves to a problem and give it their best efforts. The Knox College tests are quite intricate and they test out a student's general knowledge in the subjects mentioned to an extensive degree.

P. T. A. To Hold Annual Meeting

The Parent-Teacher association of Arlington Heights, will hold their annual meeting Tuesday evening, May 18, at the South Side school at 8 o'clock. Annual reports will be heard. The new officers for 1937-38 will be installed. Miss Betty Brunner of Des Plaines, will sing several selections.

Everyone is invited to be present.

The Spring season will be welcomed by the American Legion Auxiliary at a Cooking demonstration and Fashion Revue, which will be sponsored by them on Monday and Tuesday, May 17 and 18.

The American Legion Auxiliary also takes pride in announcing that this year they will sponsor the "Local Business Men's Exhibit" in connection with the cooking demonstration and fashion revue.

Ways and means of "building or painting your home," "the right sort of coal to use," "how to purchase the right kind of foods" and the proper gifts to buy for a special occasion will all be graphically displayed at this exhibit, which will be held in the Presbyterian church basement on Monday and Tuesday, May 17 and 18. Admission to the exhibit is free. The doors will open at 7 p. m.

The exhibit is to be staged with the cooperation of the leading merchants of Arlington Heights. The following business men will have their wares on display, which will include the latest devices and equipment:

Sieburg's Drug Store.
Robert Felntie and John Pfingsten, fleters.
Webber Paint Store.

Through the courtesy of Mr. Dreyer, Miss Edmonson, nationally known home economics expert of the Norge Products, will be in charge of a cooking demonstration which will be held on Monday, May 17, at 8 p. m. Miss Edmonson will demonstrate various kinds of cooking. This is the second visit Miss Edmonson is paying to Arlington Heights and her visit this time is creating a lot of enthusiasm among the lovers of good food and good cooking. Cooking is one of the oldest arts of mankind and one of the most interesting, therefore you do not want to miss this opportunity to see this demonstration.

Lovely and colorful housefrocks will also be shown at the close of the show. Several door prizes thru the courtesy of Dreyer Electric Shop will be given away.

During the past three years, one of the most outstanding major successes of the year has been the Fashion Revue. This year Merle Guild unit is happily and with a great deal of pleasure again announcing their "Fourth Annual Fashion Revue."

The show comes again with the compliments of Miss Emma Wilke of the Emerald Shop. Emma, as she is very affectionately known to most of us, is promising a revue of unusual beauty.

The styles are simpler, but very chic and quite colorful. Children, school girls and high school girls will model the very latest creations. Matronly fashions will also be a part of the revue. Spring suits and prom dresses will vie with each other for honors of beauty. The "bathing beauty" will also be there, as well as her girl friend in fetching beach attire.

A "Fashion Revue" of course would not be complete without a "bride" and her attendants, so be sure to be on hand to see one of our pretty young debs take the part of a bride. Klehm's noted for their unusually beautiful floral arrangements will furnish the bridal party with flowers.

Mrs. F. Watson and Ida Graft, Beauty and Hair Stylists, will show the very latest in milady's coiffure. Fashions of the hair are rather tricky these days, so it will be of interest to everyone to see the unusual hair styles.

Mr. Carl Ewert of the Arlington Bootery, our very amiable and friendly shoe man co-operates with us again in allowing the models to display the very latest in shoe styles.

Mrs. Lillian Cizek, one of our very accomplished music instructors and pianists, is also co-operating with us again by playing all the musical selections. Copies of all the music which will be played by Mrs. Cizek, comes through the courtesy of Wilke's Jewelry Store. Mr. Wilke carries copies of all the latest song hits.

The Fashion Revue will start promptly at 8:15 p. m., and will be held on Tuesday, May 18.

Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Art McElhose of the Arlington Bath and Massage, two tickets entitling you to fermentation baths will be given away as door prizes, as well as many other fine prizes.

Entertainment consisting of songs and dances, featuring Patsy and Jean Mulligan, will be a part of the show.

The Auxiliary will close its Fashion Revue with gay, colorful and interesting songs and fashions of other countries. Miss Hawaii in a real honest to goodness grass skirt, will serenade you with her ukulele. A dark haired beauty will bring to you the glorious gold dragon mandarin coat of China. United States will thrill you in all "stars and stripes" beauty. Italy, France, Roumania, Germany and Hungary will all be there to bring the greetings of their country.

The proceeds, as stated in last week's issue, will be used for service work in our own community as well as in the veteran's hospital in Elgin.

Help "Boost Our Show" by your attendance.

The price of admission is 35c, entitling you to the two events, the cooking demonstration and the fashion revue. Remember the exhibit is free.

Buy Fire Equipment At Roselle

The Roselle Rural Fire Protection League will soon have a fully equipped fire apparatus ready for action.

The board of directors met Monday night and put in an entire evening in making the selection of the equipment which is to be mounted on their truck which was purchased a short time ago.

The equipment will be mounted on the truck immediately and the entire outfit will be ready for service within six weeks time in the opinion of the officers of the League.

Enough money has been collected so that cash can be paid for the entire equipment when it is delivered and accepted by the League.

The Roselle League has progressed rapidly since the organization work was started and the members are all looking forward eagerly to the time when their completed outfit will be fully equipped and ready to roll at the alarm of "fire" in some rural locality.

'Jake' Eisler Held As A Bomber

Confesses To Blowing Up Contractor's Home.

J. H. Eisler of Long Grove, 65-year-old dynamite expert, confessed Saturday that he had set the bomb which destroyed the home of Charles E. Kapschull of Deerfield, former state American Legion commander, shortly after midnight.

Eisler related a long series of grievances, thought to be imaginary, against Kapschull.

The confession was made to State's Attorney Charles E. Mason and Chief Deputy Sheriff Thomas E. Kennedy of Lake county, who arrested Eisler on a tip from Mrs. Kapschull, within half an hour after the time the bomb exploded. Eisler, when seized, had not had time to get into bed, and the motor of his truck had not yet cooled.

"I put six sticks of dynamite, with a six-foot fuse on them, on Kapschull's porch," Eisler told the officials, "and I got home before they went off at 12:15 a. m."

The distance is six miles. Deputy Sheriff Kennedy was quick behind him, however, and took him back to Waukegan for questioning. The confession came shortly after dawn.

Family Tossed From Beds

The bomb destroyed the front of the Kapschull home, built of limestone and brick, and threw Kapschull and his wife and three children from their beds. Kapschull estimated the damage at from $3,000 to $5,000.

The Kapschulls, including the children, Charles Jr., 17; Glen, 14, and Laura Barbara, 4, were asleep in the rear when the bomb exploded. It demolished the front of the house, hurled them from their beds and showered them with falling plaster.

Although the Kapschull home is more than 150 yards from the closest residence, those of neighbors were damaged. Among them were the homes of Harry E. Wing, assistant to the president of the Commonwealth Edison Company and a former mayor of Deerfield; and Elmer L. Clavey, president of the F. B. Clavey, Ravinia Nurseries.

The blast is the seventh in a series on the north shore in the last two weeks. However, the others were blamed on labor racketeers trying to chisel into the general labor field.

Tells His Grievances

Eisler said he had carried his grievances for many months. After thirty-five years as a dynamiter, in the last twelve of which he had worked off and on for Kapschull, a highway contractor, he wanted to quit and asked Kapschull for a job as night watchman, he said. According to the story, Kapschull told him to go to the state free employment bureau.

Then, he said, Kapschull promised last summer to buy 100,000 cubic yards of earth fill from him, but didn't. Furthermore, he added, Kapschull had rented a shack he owned for storing machinery, but had never paid any rent.

Kapschull later explained that he had had no job available for Eisler, that he had promised to buy the earth only if he could find none closer to a job he was then working on and that the rental for the shack was covered by the $253 he had paid for repairs and an addition.

"Jake" Eisler is well known to this entire territory and his handiness with dynamite has blasted out many a stump, ditch, sewage canal, etc., throughout this territory. Jake always had such a mastery of the explosive that his friends thought that some day he'd make a fatal mistake, but they didn't look for exactly what occurred.

For some years Jake's friends have noticed that he was becoming increasingly "queer" in his statements and actions and an insanity defense will no doubt be made at the time of trial or a sanity hearing asked for.

Daughter of Arlington Chief of Police Has A Narrow Escape

Carol, four year old daughter of the chief of police of Arlington Heights, had a narrow escape from serious injury Sunday. Mrs. Skoog, with the little girl and Mrs. Kaiser and daughter, was driving to River side, when in some way Carol, leaning against the handle of the door caused the latter to fly open. Carol was thrown to the shoulder of the road from the car which was moving at the rate of about 40 miles an hour. She sustained bruises only.

Win In Health Contests

Eight Arlington Heights youngsters are the proud winners in the health achievement contests which were conducted in the four Arlington Heights schools during the past school year.

The schools working with Miss Martha Jackson, community nurse, who staged these health contests, were the north and south side public schools, St. James Catholic school and St. Peter's Lutheran school.

The contests are based on a ten point program as follows:

1. Normal vision according to the 20 ft. eye chart.
2. Healthy nose and throat.
3. Normal hearing.
4. Teeth brushed twice daily.
5. Bath once a week.
6. Clean wash once a week.
7. Head handkerchief in pocket.
8. 3 cups milk daily.
9. No more than 20% underweight.
10. Teeth cared for.

All grades from the 5th to the 8th inclusive competed.

A check up in the fall and another in the spring shows how well the youngsters have kept the health regulations. Those who have lived up to the ten point program in the most satisfactory manner, are adjudged the winners.

The pupils who won in various schools in the contest just closed, are as follows:

North Side Public School—Marjorie Moodie, James Hauptli.

South Side Public School—Joseph Ott, Patty Groves.

St. James Catholic School—Leona Wisersky, August Austead.

St. Peter's Lutheran school—Lois Bokelman, Robert Schwolow.

The public school winners will be honored and presented with their awards at a program in the Methodist church, Thursday, May 13, at 8 p. m. This meeting is for all 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade children and their parents and teachers. Awards will be presented to not only the winners, but to those who were eligible to enter the contest.

The St. James and St. Peter's schools will present the awards to their winners at the closing exercises in their schools in June.

The eight winners were guests of honor of the Arlington Heights Lions club Tuesday evening. Joseph H. Clettenberg, principal of the Palatine grade school, was the speaker.

There will be dancing in the afternoon and evening.

Various committees are now being formed. Further announcement will be made later in this paper.

Koch In State Meet

Bruce Koch, Palatine high school senior, won the right to enter the state track and field meet at Champaign Friday by winning first place in the discus throw at the Evanston state district meet last Saturday. Koch won the gold medal with a throw of 116 feet 6 1/2 inches.

Koch came to Palatine last fall from Chicago with no athletic experience, but has won letters in three sports this past year. Six weeks ago Bruce had never seen a discus. In dual meets he had never thrown beyond 103 feet. All of his seven throws last Saturday were in excess of that mark. The reason is that he has finally mastered the form necessary for success in his event.

Koch and Coach McElroy will leave for Champaign Friday morning. This will be the third boy that McElroy has taken to the state meet in his three seasons as Palatine's track coach. Edward Hahnfeldt and Godfrey Schinkosky went to the state meet in 1935. Hahnfeldt won the state discus championship on that occasion.

Buy Fire Equipment At Roselle

The Roselle Rural Fire Protection League will soon have a fully equipped fire apparatus ready for action.

The board of directors met Monday night and put in an entire evening in making the selection of the equipment which is to be mounted on their truck which was purchased a short time ago.

The equipment will be mounted on the truck immediately and the entire outfit will be ready for service within six weeks time in the opinion of the officers of the League.

Enough money has been collected so that cash can be paid for the entire equipment when it is delivered and accepted by the League.

The Roselle League has progressed rapidly since the organization work was started and the members are all looking forward eagerly to the time when their completed outfit will be fully equipped and ready to roll at the alarm of "fire" in some rural locality.

'Jake' Eisler Held As A Bomber

Confesses To Blowing Up Contractor's Home.

J. H. Eisler of Long Grove, 65-year-old dynamite expert, confessed Saturday that he had set the bomb which destroyed the home of Charles E. Kapschull of Deerfield, former state American Legion commander, shortly after midnight.

Eisler related a long series of grievances, thought to be imaginary, against Kapschull.

The confession was made to State's Attorney Charles E. Mason and Chief Deputy Sheriff Thomas E. Kennedy of Lake county, who arrested Eisler on a tip from Mrs. Kapschull, within half an hour after the time the bomb exploded.

Eisler, when seized, had not had time to get into bed, and the motor of his truck had not yet cooled.

"I put six sticks of dynamite, with a six-foot fuse on them, on Kapschull's porch," Eisler told the officials, "and I got home before they went off at 12:15 a. m."

The distance is six miles. Deputy Sheriff Kennedy was right behind him, however, and took him back to Waukegan for questioning. The confession came shortly after dawn.

Family Tossed From Beds

The bomb destroyed the front of the Kapschull home, built of limestone and brick, and threw Kapschull and his wife and three children from their beds. Kapschull estimated the damage at from $3,000 to $5,000.

The Kapschulls, including the children, Charles Jr., 17; Glen, 14, and Laura Barbara, 4, were asleep in the rear when the bomb exploded. It demolished the front of the house, hurled them from their beds and showered them with falling plaster.

Although the Kapschull home is more than 150 yards from the closest residence, those of neighbors were damaged. Among them were the homes of Harry E. Wing, as assistant to the president of the Commonwealth Edison Company and a former mayor of Deerfield; and Elmer L. Clavey, president of the F. B. Clavey, Ravinia Nurseries.

The blast is the seventh in a series on the north shore in the last two weeks. However, the others were blamed on labor racketeers trying to chisel into the general labor field.

Tells His Grievances

Eisler said he had carried his grievances for many months. After thirty-five years as a dynamiter, in the last twelve of which he had worked off and on for Kapschull, a highway contractor, he wanted to quit and asked Kapschull for a job as night watchman, he said.

According to the story, Kapschull told him to go to the state free employment bureau.

Then, he said, Kapschull promised last summer to buy 100,000 cubic yards of earth fill from him, but didn't. Furthermore, he added, Kapschull had rented a shack he owned for storing machinery, but had never paid any rent.

Kapschull later explained that he had had no job available for Eisler, that he had promised to buy the earth only if he could find none closer to a job he was then working on and that the rental for the shack was covered by the $253 he had paid for repairs and an addition.

"Jake" Eisler is well known to this entire territory and his handsomeness with dynamite has blasted out many a stump, ditch, sewage canal, etc., throughout this territory. Jake always had such a mastery of the explosive that his friends thought that some day he'd make a fatal mistake, but they didn't look for exactly what occurred.

For some years Jake's friends have noticed that he was becoming increasingly "queer" in his statements and actions and an insanity defense will no doubt be made at the time of trial or a sanity hearing asked for.

Daughter of Arlington Chief of Police Has A Narrow Escape

Carol, four year old daughter of the chief of police of Arlington Heights, had a narrow escape from serious injury Sunday.

Mrs. Skoug, with the little girl and Mrs. Kaiser and daughter, was driving to Riverside, when in some way Carol, leaning against the handle of the door caused the latter to fly open.

Carol was thrown to the shoulder of the road from the car which was moving at the rate of about 40 miles an hour. She sustained bruises only.

Win In Health Contests

Eight Arlington Heights youngsters are the proud winners in the health achievement contests which were conducted in the four Arlington Heights schools during the past school year.

The schools working with Miss Martha Jackson, community nurse, who staged these health contests, were the north and south side public schools, St. James Catholic school and St. Peter's Lutheran school.

The contests are based on a ten point program as follows:

1. Normal vision according to the 20 ft. eye chart.
2. Healthy nose and throat.
3. Normal hearing.
4. Teeth brushed twice daily.
5. Bath once a week.
6. Head wash once a week.
7. Clean handkerchief in pocket.
8. 3 cups milk daily.
9. No more than 20% underweight.
10. Teeth cared for.

All grades from the 5th to the 8th inclusive competed.

A check up in the fall and another in the spring shows how well the youngsters have kept the health regulations. Those who have lived up to the ten point program in the most satisfactory manner, are adjudged the winners.

The pupils who won in various schools in the contest just closed, are as follows:

North Side Public School—Marjorie Moodie, James Hauptli.

South Side Public School—Joseph Ott, Patty Groves.

St. James Catholic School—Leona Wisersky, August Austeadt.

St. Peter's Lutheran school—Lois Bokelman, Robert Scholow.

The public school winners will be honored and presented with their awards at a program in the Methodist church, Thursday, May 13, at 8 p. m. This meeting is for all 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th grade children and their parents and teachers. Awards will be presented to not only the winners, but to those who were eligible to enter the contest.

The St. James and St. Peter's schools will present the awards to their winners at the closing exercises in their schools in June.

The eight winners were guests of honor of the Arlington Heights Lions club Tuesday evening, Joseph H. Clettenberg, principal of the Palatine grade school, was the speaker.

Firemen Plan Picnic Saturday, July 24

Mt. Prospect Rural Fire Protection League and the Village Firemen of Mt. Prospect will hold a picnic Saturday, July 24th, at Arlington Ballroom, Higgins road, 1/4 mile west of Arlington Heights Road.

It will be an old fashioned picnic with ball games, contests for old and young, many prizes.

There will be dancing in the afternoon and evening.

Various committees are now being formed. Further announcement will be made later in this paper.

Koch In State Meet

Bruce Koch, Palatine high school senior, won the right to enter the state track and field meet at Champaign Friday by winning first place in the discus throw at the Evans-ton state district meet last Saturday.

Koch won the gold medal with a throw of 116 feet 6 1/2 inches.

Koch came to Palatine last fall from Chicago with no athletic experience, but has won letters in three sports this past year. Six weeks ago Bruce had never seen a discus. In dual meets he had never thrown beyond 103 feet. All of his seven throws last Saturday were in excess of that mark. The reason is that he has finally mastered the form necessary for success in his event.

Koch and Coach McElroy will leave for Champaign Friday morning. This will be the third year that McElroy has taken to the state meet in his three seasons as Palatine's track coach. Edward Hahnfeldt and Godfrey Schinkosky went to the state meet in 1935. Hahnfeldt won the state discus championship on that occasion.

Interesting Southern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Nagenbring have just returned from a fine 3200 mile trip through the southland.

Leaving Arlington Heights on Monday, April 12, the Hagenbrings toured through Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee and Alabama. They stayed for two weeks at their home in Magnolia Springs, Alabama, and report that that part of the country was looking fine and doing very well. The magnolia trees were in full bloom, as were the dogwood, wisteria holly and other southland flowers.

The harvesting of early potatoes was on in full blast, while they were there and Mr. Hagenbring says that the production of potatoes in that area is the greatest ever. The growers expect to ship from 500 to 600 cars per day during the season. The price for No. 1 spuds was around $2.25 per 100 lb. sack and for No. 2 around $1.50 per sack.

The largest acreage of potatoes in the history of the area is being harvested and is helping to bring prosperity to the farmers of that country.

Mr. Hagenbring reports many new homes being built and many new autos and trucks being purchased by the farmers.

At Birmingham, Alabama, many of the steel mills that have been idle for years are running full blast and the city is undergoing a substantial building boom.

Just before the Hagenbrings left Magnolia Springs, a heavy storm hit the Gulf Coast country with a torrential rainfall of 10 inches in 2 hours in southern Alabama.

The Hagenbrings toured along the Gulf coast through Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana and saw damage that had been done by the storm along the coast.

Mr. Hagenbring spoke in glowing terms about the wonderful Huey Long bridge and roads in Louisiana.

From New Orleans, La., the Hagenbrings toured through the western part of Louisiana, into Texas and on through Arkansas and Oklahoma. All along the route Mr. Hagenbring reports decided progress being made in road construction and in the general betterment of business condition.

H. L. Honored By Shrine

At Tulsa, Oklahoma Mr. Hagenbring attended the forty-third convention of the Supreme Shrine. At this convention Mr. Hagenbring received the honor of being made chairman of the Charters and Dispensation committee. This great honor comes to few and Arlington Heights should feel proud of the distinction bestowed upon its fellow townsman.

Harry X. Cole, well known Chicago attorney, was honored with the appointment of Supreme Associate Watchman.

During their trip the Hagenbrings were entertained royally by the Shrines in Birmingham, Ala. and Tulsa and Miami, Oklahoma.

The oil fields and the lead and zinc mines of Oklahoma, are booming and prosperity is evident on every hand.

Oil wells are to be seen in the front yards of beautiful homes, and in the country and city alike there is every sign of good business and prosperity.

In Tulsa Mr. Hagenbring reports that auto drivers are much more reckless than in this county, but that there are very few accidents. The law in that town is every man for himself and police are seldom seen.

From Tulsa to their home town the trip was all made on fine paved roads, through Kansas, Missouri and Illinois.

In the south the mill system of sales tax is in effect and the traveler has to pay his token with every 5 cent purchase.

Mr. Hagenbring reports that the tourist camps of the south are finely equipped with all the comforts of home and that Illinois is far behind in tourist camp accommodations.

The entire trip was greatly enjoyed by the Hagenbrings and the evidences of returned prosperity was very pleasing to H. L. There is a relief problem everywhere says Mr.

Newspapers Again Carry Large Blatz Advertising Space

Milwaukee, Wis., May 4th—(Special)—At a series of meetings during the last two weeks, at the offices of the Blatz Brewing Company, Milwaukee, attended by many distributors, branch managers, salesmen, sales and advertising executives from all over the United States, the advertising and sales plans of that company for the spring and summer of 1937 were presented.

The announcement was made that newspapers had been selected as the principal advertising media for this year's advertising plans.

It is said that the Blatz schedule for 1937 is one of the largest releases of newspaper copy on beer that has ever appeared locally and throughout the country.

"We believe in newspaper advertising," says Hal Johnson, advertising manager of the Blatz Brewing Company. "Last year 1936, Blatz, enjoyed the largest sales volume on Blatz beer in all its 86 years of continuous production of beer and soft drinks.

"We attribute this success to two factors—first, of course, the very excellence of Blatz beer; and second, to the extensive newspaper advertising campaigns that appeared throughout the country, in hundreds of markets.

"The result has been a decision to still further increase our newspaper schedules, and sales records so far this year have already indicated that Blatz is repeating, and will hit a new high in consumer preference and sales volume.

"Last fall Blatz started a building program, making additions to the enormous Milwaukee brewery, and much new and most modern equipment was installed, so as to insure an increased volume for 1937 over 300,000 barrels. The increased demand for Blatz beer indicates that even these increased production facilities will be taxed to capacity.

"This year leading newspapers throughout the country are carrying more Blatz advertisements, larger in size, than ever before, and we look to set new sales records in every territory."

New Judge Gets Busy

Judge Wm. Neuman has proved worthy of the title in his initial days on the bench in the Arlington Heights police court.

Five speeding cases at $5.00 and costs each, one overloaded truck, $7 and costs and one drunk, $25 and costs, was a fine start for the new judge.

Nearly 200 local autoists who have not purchased local vehicle tags, have been issued summons by mail to appear before Judge Neuman, and show cause why they should not be assessed fines. Over a hundred of these have hurried to the treasurer's office and their cases will not be called, but others will have the opportunity to "tell it to the judge."

The judge relented a little here and told those cases that if they would immediately purchase their vehicle tags, he would let them off this once.

It was a good start for new jurist and if Bill keeps that up the long arm of the law will be well upheld in Arlington Heights.
